

PENCIL CASE AND COLOURS

VOCABULARY		CULTURAL FACT	GRAMMAR
una regla una goma un estuche un sacapuntas un pegamento unas tijeras unos rotuladores unos lápices de colores un lápiz un bolígrafo	a ruler a rubber a pencil case a sharpener a glue a pair of scissors some felt tips some pencil colours a pencil a pen	Children in Latin America usually the children's parents have to buy all their school materials.  	In Spanish, all nouns can be feminine or masculine. All nouns are preceded by an article which will give you a clue as to whether it is a masculine or feminine noun. We colour code masculine and feminine words like this: un = a masculine el = the (singular) los=the (plural) una = a feminine la = the (singular) las = the (plural)
negro rojo amarillo blanco verde azul marrón gris naranja rojo rosa violeta	black red yellow white green blue brown grey orange red pink violet/purple	In Spanish countries it is believed that colours can change peoples' mood.	Colours are adjectives and in order to describe a noun using colours it must followed the rule of Adjective agreement

SPANISH

KNOWLEDGE

ORGANISER

YEAR: 3 Term: Autumn 2