

Describe parts of the face and body

VOCABULARY		CULTURAL FACTS	GRAMMAR
Usando actividades diferenciadas para cada nivel de habilidad, describir las partes de la cara y el cuerpo usando adjetivos como colores, números y tamaños. Introducir preposiciones de lugar: arriba encima abajo debajo a la derecha a la izquierda en el centro de Usando todo el vocabulario aprendido diseñar y describir tu propio monstruo y mostrar las partes de la cara y el cuerpo. Desafío: usar e incluir las preposiciones de lugar, adjetivos, y palabras conjuntivas. Describir pinturas de Picasso y la Semana Santa. Prueba de escribir.	Using differentiated activities for different abilities levels describe parts of the face and body using adjectives such as colours, numbers, and sizes. Introduce prepositions of place: above over down under on the right on the left in the centre of Using all language learnt design and describe your own monster and show the parts of its body and face. Challenge: to use prepositions of place, adjectives and conjunctive words. Describe Picasso's pictures and Easter (cultural). Writing AFL	Do you know that Picasso and Miro are very famous Spanish painters and both offer abstracts and colourful pictures and they include many shapes in them.  	Do you know that in Spanish the adjectives go before the nouns? e.g.: tengo una estrella verde = I have a green star. The adjectives must also agree with the feminine and masculine nouns. However, adjectives that end on a consonant or an E do not change and stay the same as the example above e.g.: la estrella es roja the star is red, as you can see rojO has changed to rojA

SPANISH

KNOWLEDGE

ORGANISER

YEAR: 4 Term: Spring 2